

26. A farmer wants to fence in a rectangular portion of land along one side of her barn. She uses the side of the barn for one side of the rectangle, and makes the other three sides from a total of 60 feet of fencing. Find the side lengths that give the maximum area she can fence in, as well as the maximum area. Show all work.

